Wilfrid Laurier University Students' Union Policy Manual

The policies contained in this document broadly govern all operations of the Wilfrid Laurier University Students' Union, known hereinafter as the "Organization", and outline its long term strategic goals.

Introduction to the Policy Manual – A Guide

The policies within this manual have been created by and adopted by the Board.

Governance Process and Board-Management Delegation

- These two (2) categories (Governance Process and Board-Management Delegation) are rules for the board's own performance and behavior
 - o Governance Process policies define how the board accomplishes its own job of setting the strategic direction
 - o Board-Management Delegation policies define the relationship between the board and the Chief Executive Officer (CEO)
- The board will regularly evaluate its own performance against these two (2) categories of policies

Ends and Executive Limitations

- These two (2) categories (Ends and Executive Limitations) are the board's instructions to the staff/organization, through the Chief Executive Officer (CEO)
 - o Ends policies are the purpose of the organization and the strategic direction that the Students' Union will take
 - o Executive Limitation policies restrict the President and staff as to what they cannot do in order to accomplish the Ends
- The Board evaluates (over the course of a one year period) the President's performance against the above-noted two (2) categories of policies

Policy Design

- The policies are layered, i.e. the first policy in each of the four categories (Ends #1, GP#1, EL#1, BMD#1) is the most broad statement (or value or perspective)
- As the board goes into the second layer of policies (i.e. GP#2a, 2b, etc.), the Board is further explaining/interpreting its instruction
- The benefit of this policy design is that the first policy layer covers all possible topics or issues, even if a particular issue is not specifically addressed at the second level

 - a. Unless the Board has specifically authorized such exercise of authority.
2. Remain cognizant of their motions to ensure that they do not take a material amount of staff time or funds, nor are disruptive, unless necessary for the board to function.

The President is the Board's only link to operational achievements and conduct, so that all authority and accountability of staff, as far as the Board is concerned, is considered the authority and accountability of the President.

The Board will:

1. Hold the President fully accountable for all organizational operations.

The Board will:

1. Develop policies instructing the President to achieve specified results, for specified recipients, at a specified cost. These policies will be developed systematically from the broadest, most general level to more defined levels, and will be called Ends policies. All issues that are not Ends issues as defined here are means issues.
2. Develop policies that limit the latitude that the President may exercise in choosing the organizational means. These limiting policies will describe those practices, activities, decisions and circumstances that would be unacceptable to the Board even if they were to be effective. Policies will be developed systematically from the broadest, most general level to more defined levels, and they will be called Executive Limitations policies. The Board will never prescribe organizational means delegated to the President.
3. Acknowledge that below the global level, the aggregate of limitations on any given level may embrace the scope of the foregoing level, but only if justified by the President to the Board's satisfaction.
4. Authorize the President to establish all further policies, make all decisions, take all actions, establish all practices and develop all activities so long as they use any reasonable interpretation of the Board's Ends and Executive Limitations policies;

 - a. Any change to the Ends of the organization requires a special majority (2/3) vote of the Board;
 - b. So long as any particular delegation is in place, the Board and its members will respect and support the President's choices.

Systematic and rigorous monitoring of Presidential job performance will be solely against the only expected Presidential job products: organizational accomplishment of Board policies on Ends and organizational operation within the boundaries established in Board policies on Executive Limitations.

The Board will:

1. Determine the degree to which Board policies are being met through monitoring;
 - a. Information that does not do this will not be considered to be monitoring data.
2. Acquire monitoring information by one or more of three methods:
 - a. by INTERNAL REPORT: in which the President discloses interpretations and compliance information to the Board;
 - b. by EXTERNAL REPORT: in which an external, disinterested 3rd party selected by the Board assesses compliance with the President's interpretation of Board policies; or
 - c. by DIRECT BOARD INSPECTION: in which a designated Board member or members of the Board assess compliance with the President's interpretation of the appropriate policy criteria.
3. Judge:
 - a. the reasonableness of the President's interpretation; and
 - b. whether data demonstrate accomplishment of the interpretation.
4. Accept any reasonable President interpretation of the Board policy being monitored as the standard for compliance;
 - a. The Board is the final arbiter of reasonableness, but will always judge with a "reasonable person" test rather than with interpretations favoured by Board members or by the Board as a whole.
5. Monitoring information will be presented from all campuses in which the Union operates if there are discrepancies in compliance.
6. All policies that instruct the President will be monitored at a frequency and by a method chosen by the Board. The Board can monitor any policy at any time by any method, but will ordinarily depend on a routine schedule as follows:
